

Sigma Tau Gamma

RECRUITMENT ADVISOR | CHAPTER ADVISORY TEAM

The Recruitment Advisor will serve as the primary advisor to the Chapter's Vice President of Membership and will report to the Lead Chapter Advisor on the Chapter Advisory Team. In addition, the Recruitment Advisor will assist in advising the Recruitment Committee and undergraduate members on successful recruitment techniques. The most effective advisor will be able to lead by example and model to the Vice President of Membership and undergraduate members what it means to be an excellent member of Sigma Tau Gamma. Advisors should be outgoing, excited to meet with undergraduate members and potential new members, and willing to engage others in conversation. Previous Undergraduate experience in recruitment and a familiarity with the dynamic recruitment process are preferred but not required for this position. The Recruitment Advisor can expect to lead two 30-minute coaching/check-in calls with the Vice President of Membership per month and participate in monthly conference calls with the full Chapter Advisory Team. Ideally, the Recruitment Advisor should plan to visit campus at least three times per academic semester, which may include attending a Chapter meeting or Recruitment Committee meeting or participating in new member education. Qualified candidates will be appointed by the Lead Chapter Advisor and serve for two years, alternating with other members of the Chapter Advisory Team.
